

Since 1999 our company operates a transportation department of household goods and artworks.

The complete management of a household transfer from the packaging of goods, safe transportation, insurance to unpacking, placement of items and the removal of wastes, made possible by experts using the most modern methods and materials in the packaging and transportation. Also the department is involved in the packaging and transporting artworks having successfully consolidate partnerships with both private galleries and public services.